GAUGHAN & CONNEALY
ESTATE PLANNING ATTORNEYS

Recognized by Super Lawyers Magazine as a Missouri & Kansas Rising Star (2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019) – an award presented to the top 2.5% of attorneys in Missouri and Kansas under the age of 40, internationally distinguished as a Leading Lawyer on Lawyer Monthly Magazine's Global 250 list (2014), and honored by the legal community with the highest attorney Avvo-rating of "Superb", Casey Connealy is very well-respected in the Kansas City legal community.

Known for his ability to reduce estate taxes, to minimize or avoid the nightmare of probate and, most significantly, to deliver well-crafted Estate Plans to clients based upon their lifestyles, professions, and specific situations, Mr. Connealy takes definitive measures to analyze updates in the Estate Planning industry and compare them to the various challenges his clients face daily.

Regularly called upon by local and national financial experts for niche Estate Planning matters, Mr. Connealy has most recently presented to an audience of 100+ financial professionals with Ameriprise Financial Advisors, to the H&R Block World Headquarters in Kansas City, the National Business Institute, and numerous continuing education classes for financial professionals, as well as to the general public.

A lifelong resident of Kansas City, he earned his Juris Doctor, Masters in Business Administration and undergraduate degrees from the University of Kansas. He is a member of the prestigious American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys, Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association, as well as the individual Kansas and Missouri Bar Associations.

Married with three beautiful daughters, and most recently a son to join the Connealy clan, he strives to balance his time between having tea parties and building elaborate castles with his three young girls, volunteering at his local parish, and teaching his oldest daughter to play the piano.
